PARIS CITY COMMISSION AGENDA ITEM

Commission Meeting Date: May 7, 2024

AGENDA ITEM: Public Service Recognition Week

DEPARTMENT: Administration

RECOMMENDED MOTION: No action required.

DESCRIPTION: May 5-11th, 2024 is Public Service Recognition Week.

This week is intended to honor people who serve as federal, state, county, local, and tribal government employees.

As such, the City Manager is requesting a moment to recognize the staff and their contributions.

Employees of the City of Paris provide critical and essential services that maintain public safety, promote community well-being, and enhance the quality of life of every citizen, business owner, and visitor to our region.

As a City, we are proud to recognize the dedication, commitment, and tireless efforts of our public servants.

The exceptional professionalism, care, and resilience demonstrated by our employees, particularly during challenging times, displays the values of public service. We recognize the hard work of our public servants that serve with integrity and excellence.

Without employees in public service at every level of government, continuity would be impossible.
